

VETERINARY SURGEON IN THE NETHERLANDS - VARIOUS CLINICS ACROSS THE COUNTRY EURES Vacancy reference: WBS1345325

The Company

With 1,740 clinics across 17 countries, this organisation is the largest veterinary group in Europe, combining knowledge and providing the highest quality care for companion animals. Their model brings together high-quality care, collaboration between clinics, and respect for local identity and entrepreneurship.

Their network connects first- and second-line clinics with cutting-edge specialised care in veterinary hospitals. They offer extensive development opportunities through their in-house Academy, and a support team that assists the clinics with organisational and management tasks.

Position

Are you a motivated and enthusiastic veterinary surgeon looking to take on a professional challenge abroad?

Are you ready to start your career outside your home country and get to know how Dutch veterinarians work and their close connection with pets?

Then you are the candidate we are looking for!

Main Responsibilities

- Clinical care of companion animals.
- Working as part of a multidisciplinary team in first- and second-line settings.
- Opportunity to collaborate with advanced specialist hospitals within the group.
- Contributing to the smooth daily operation of the clinic.

Requirements

- Degree in Veterinary Medicine.
- Functional level of English for oral communication.
- Strong commitment to learning Dutch during the first year of employment (essential for integration and client interaction).
- Motivation to work in an international environment.
